Bonus Puzzle Pack

10 New Florida Word Searches

A companion gift for readers of Florida Memories

EXTRA LARGE PRINT · FOR ADULTS & SENIORS

Sunroom Press

Welcome, neighbor.

Thank you for joining our circle of readers at Sunroom Press. Inside this companion pack are ten brand-new Florida puzzles you won't find anywhere in the main books. Every page brings you a clean, extra-large grid and a verified Florida fact to enjoy over morning coffee — just like Florida Memories.

HOW TO PLAY: Each puzzle hides 15 themed words inside an extra-large grid. Words run forward, backward, up, down, and diagonally. Circle or highlight each word as you spot it, then check it off the list below. If you ever get stuck, full solutions wait at the back, printed large and right-side up.

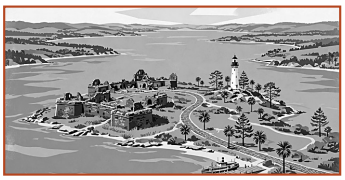

Print these pages one at a time, or print the whole collection to keep by your favorite armchair. We'll be in touch by note when new reader puzzles are ready, along with a quiet first look at our next journey: National Park Memories.
Warmly, Sunroom Press

PUZZLE 1

Egmont Key Lighthouse & Fort Dade

Egmont Key, reachable only by boat, guards the mouth of Tampa Bay. Its lighthouse has stood since 1858, and the ruins of Fort Dade, built in 1898, spread across the island, now a state park and wildlife refuge.

PUZZLE 2

Key Marco Cat: The Calusa Carving

In 1896, excavating the waterlogged muck of Marco Island, Frank Hamilton Cushing uncovered a small wooden cat — carved centuries earlier by the Calusa and preserved because the wet mud kept air from it. The Key Marco Cat now sits in the Smithsonian, Florida's most famous ancient carving.

The Showcase of Citrus, Clermont

Billed as “Florida's Fresh Air Attraction,” this family-owned 2,500-acre citrus and cattle ranch on U.S. 27 welcomes guests year-round. Guests pick their own fruit, shop the Old Time Country Store, and board massive 4x4 monster trucks for eco-tours through working groves, pasture, and native swamp.

Oldest Store Museum Emporium

C. F. Hamblen opened a general store here in 1875 that went on to supply Flagler's hotel-building crews — hardware, tonics, and goat-powered washing machines among the stock. The museum recreates it at the turn of the century, counters and clerks and all.
